

Why become a Director?

Same work = different pay!

These were my figures the December before I seriously started qualifying for Directorship. I had talked and talked about becoming a Director, but never followed through. I sabotaged myself. My Director showed me how much money I was losing by not taking the next step. That opened my eyes. These figures have been adapted to today's compensation structure. - Cathy, Independent Sales Director :)

Based on total production: $9000 ($1015 personal + $7985 team)
Activity	Consultant Pay	Director Pay
Personal Team Production: $7985 X 13%	$1038.05	$1038.05
Total Unit Production (includes your own order plus all non-personal members) $9000 X 13%	n/a	$1170
Unit Volume Bonus (10% of Unit production)	n/a	$900
New Qualified Personal Recruits X 5 ($50 each for Cons/$100 each for Dir)	$250	$500
New Unit Qualified Recruits X 5 (4-10 New @ $100 each)	n/a	$500
Career Car Cash Compensation (based on the $9,000 production monthly)	$375	$500
	$1,663.05	$4608.05

$2845 left on the table every month!

Yes, I was leaving more on the table than I was even making.

The above does not include personal commissions on personal sales, red jacket bonus, or the $800+ annual wellness bonus available.

We asked Directors "why they wanted to be a Director" . . . these are some of their answers!

To make a positive impact on other's lives

To make a difference

I knew there was greatness inside me, but I'd never been able to get it out

To earn an unlimited income

To get out of the red jacket room! (No seriously)

Freedom of schedule

I REALLY wanted those buzz kits

Money and to hangout with big thinking women

To help my family

To be able to pay private schools for my children

To make enough money to stay at home with my babies

Hope of a different future because I was working three jobs and still couldn't make ends meet

To be a champion for women, helping them to believe in their worth

To leave my full time career where I was underpaid, under appreciated and over worked

To give my family hope and a future that I once thought was impossible

To lead others to better lives

Do something completely different at this juncture of my life

Directors looked like they had it all, and I wanted it all

My Director showed me how much money I was losing by remaining a consultant

Initially for the money. Stayed for the Cinderella life

To be able to attend Leadership Conference

To own my own business

I wanted to prove other people wrong

Leadership... to impact lives

The platform, I felt called

Be my own boss and generate income at will

To teach women to think for themselves

Something I was in control of which led to self confidence to leave abusive marriage

These are so great! Can you relate?

These are the very same women who are cheering you on and will celebrate as you cross the stage as a new Director!
