PLAN YOUR PAYCHECK & EARN HOLIDAY SPENDING CASH

How much do you spend during the Holidays? $500? $1,000? $2,000? $3,000?

Would you rather have CASH to pay for your Holiday gifts or is a credit card bill with interest more your reality?

TAKE THE TIME TO PLAN YOUR HOLIDAY STRATEGY NOW! Work out the numbers and TRACK them until the very end

1. First, figure out your selling averages:

- What is your Class/Party/Show average? $200 $300 $500 _____
- What is your average Facial sale? $50 $75 $100 _____
- Average On the Go/ Stop-By Appt: $30 $40 $50 _____
- Average Reorders in a Week: $50 $100 $200 _____
- Open House Average: $500 $1,000 $1,500 _____

If you are new or not sure of your averages, look at your Weekly Accomplishment Sheets & average them out.
If you aren't filling out your Weekly Accomplishment Sheets, now is the time to start tracking!

2. Next, decide how much CASH you want this Holiday Season: $1,500 $2,000 $5,000 $_____

Take that amount and divide it by 40% to find the retail sales goal you'll need to make!

This formula is using the 60/40 split:

50% to purchase/repurchase inventory, 5% for PCP/events 5% for supplies, & 40% profit!

- For example, you want $1,000 CASH: $$1,000 \text{ divided by } 0.40 = $2,500$

You will need to sell $2,500 in products in order to take home $1,000 in cash. This does not include discounts.

3. Use the Holiday Selling Plan to break down what activities excite you and design what you want the next 16 weeks to look like!! Then, use the Tracking Sheet because a tracked number will always grow!

TIPS:

Be sure to get Wish Lists from all of your customers and family members at their facials/appointments STARTING NOW! They can use the back of the profile card to list goodies they love! Keep it simple! Husbands love the help and those area extra selling opportunities! It's not too early in August to start contacting them!

If you want to hold 6 classes you will need to BOOK 10! Don't set yourself up for failure by under-booking. It's the Law of Averages. If you need to book 10 Classes, you will need to call 30-40 people. Just work with the numbers. People may let you down but numbers never will. What are you WILLING to do to INSURE YOUR SUCCESS?

NOTES/ IDEAS:

"There's a difference between interest and commitment. When you're interested in something, you do it only when it's convenient. When you're committed to something, you accept no excuses, only results." — Kenneth Blanchard

HOW TO SELL TO CORPORATE BUSINESSES

Script: Contact Business Gift Buyers and Boost Your Holiday Sales Senior Director Nancy Moser uses the following dialogue when calling local businesses about holiday gift buying:

"May I please speak with the person in charge of purchasing holiday gifts for employees or clients?"

'Mr. or Mrs. _____, this is Nancy Moser. I'm an Independent Beauty Consultant with Mary Kay Cosmetics, and I'm calling businesses in the area to offer my executive shopping service for your special clients and employees. May I have five minutes from your busy schedule to explain my services? Depending on your needs, I have specialized gifts priced from $5 to $40 or more, and I will gift wrap them for you FREE! I also have a special gift for you with any purchase of $50 or more. You can order now and pay half the total cost, then pay the balance due upon delivery the week of _____.'

Nancy recommends taking the order over the phone whenever possible. However, most people want to see what they'll be getting, so instead of going into great detail by phone, she suggests that you ask for a 15 minute appointment this week to show her or him the wide variety of gift choices they have.

Overcoming Objections: Executive Senior Director Sharon Stempson sends a letter to businesses she thinks may be interested in her gift buying services. She then follows up with a phone call and is always prepared to overcome two of the most common objections: "We only give a bonus" Great! I know your employees truly appreciate that. You know, _____, I believe that when you give a small personal gift along with a bonus, that person thinks of you every time she uses it. You can get so much more goodwill out of your bonus! Is there any reason why we couldn't get together this week or next and spend 10 minutes looking at our gift ideas? It won't cost you a cent to look, and I guarantee you'll be glad you did! "Gifts are too personal" I know exactly how you feel. I've felt like that myself, but I've found that people love a personal item. By the way, do your employees work with your clients? We also provide free classes on professional makeup and dress that can help them represent your business the way you want them to. Would you be interested in that service as well? Why don't we schedule a 10 minute appointment for this week or next and let me explain my gift-buying ideas and the other services I can offer. Those 10 minutes may solve more than one problem for you! Consider these businesses and more: Banks Dentists Churches Printers Clinics Veterinarians Loan Companies Car Dealers Gas Stations Contractors Realtors Restaurants Hotels Doctors Social/Civic Groups Self Employed Insurance Companies More Suggestions: Dress and act professionally for each appointment. Be on time. When you arrive, give a product sampler or other small gift to the secretary and have fragrance samplers on hand for the potential buyer. Emphasize your range of prices. Ask your contact if he or she has several price levels in mind or if everyone receives the same gift. Usually a company gift-buyer will either choose the items or say, —I need 20 women's gifts and 10 men's gifts at $20 each. The actual selection may be left to you. *Listen for other gift needs your contact may have such as personal gifts for family and friends. *Be sure to attach your address label to each gift product. If possible, get the names of the recipients for follow-up sales. *Keep in mind that your goal is repeat business throughout the year and following holiday seasons.

Tips: 1. Corporate buyers want to buy. They are actively looking for products and services to help them run their businesses more effectively. They want to save time, save money, increase sales, and increase productivity. There are purchasing agents whose sole job is to buy. Giving is MANDATORY! 2. Corporate buyers are spending other people's money. Most companies have written gift policies many believe the government tax-deduction limit of $25 is too low and often spend more. "The Concise Guide to Executive Etiquette" (Doubleday), say upper managers prefer gifts in the $50 range; Sr Executives spend $100 or more 3. Corporate buyers are sophisticated. They appreciate and are willing to pay for the extra touch. 4. Corporate buyers read. Your written material must stress the benefits of your service, not just the features. 5. Corporate sales involve a multi-step process. Make your contact via phone or direct mail. You must get past the gatekeeper. "What is your call regarding?" Respond: "This is about the gifts she needs" or "This is about a gift for you." 6. Corporate buying involves multiple buying influences. An administrative assistant, her boss, and whoever authorize payment. Some corporations have a committee you have to give a presentation to. Don't fear this process. Be encourage to know the company has an active gift -giving program. They are predisposed to buy. 7. Corporate sales require a different approach and commitment than consumer sales. But if you show corporate clients how your gift service can help them reach their goals, you'll watch your business soar!

HOW TO HOLD A HOLIDAY PARTY

This is the perfect time of the year to hold Holiday Parties that are centered around helping your customers shop for their holiday gifts. These parties are sometimes called “Holiday Coffees” or “Jingle & Mingle” Parties. The best hostess are previous hostesses or your “A” customers. At these parties you will not be teaching instructional skincare or glamour makeovers. Instead you will demo satin hands, satin lips, fragrances and other body care items. You will turn her dining room table into a “holiday store” where her guests can stop in and shop for everyone on their list. These parties typically take 45 minutes to an hour.

Hostess Incentive:

For each guest over the age of 18, the hostess will receive one gift set at half price! Plus, $75 of product from the catalog for only $35! (Example: 6 guests attend her Holiday Coffee. The hostess will receive 6 gift sets at half price that you have pre-made, plus $75 of product (not gift wrapped) and pay only $35 plus sales tax.)

Hostess Packet:

Give each hostess a packet with your holiday hostess incentive, 2 full catalogs and 2 holiday catalogs, sales tickets, your business card, holiday recruiting info and a holiday wish list.

Pre-profile Guests:

Even though you are not teaching skincare and glamour makeovers you will want to still pre-profile the guests to let them know you are excited to meet them and to find out who is on their holiday shopping list.

Gift Sets for the Party:

I say stick with the “6x6” rule. Make 6 different kinds of gift sets and then make 6 of each. This will give you 36 sets total. Keep your price points $25-$50 (no more than $75). Let your guests know that you can always customize gift sets just for them at the price point they choose.

Example:

1– Body Care: Make up 6 satin hands sets. 3 of each scent.

2-Fragrance: Make up 6 fragrance sets. These can be mix and match fragrance sets. Not all have to be the same scent.

3-Skincare: Make up 6 skincare sets that are for all skin types. These can also be a mix and match such as...3 Skinvigorate Brushes and 3 Microdermabrasion Sets.

4-Glamour: Make up 6 glam sets that excite you and that are good for all skin tones and eye colors.

5-MK Men: Have mix and match sets for the men on their list. Maybe half with skincare and the other half shave sets.

6-Men Colognes: Make up 6 cologne sets for men. These do not need to be the same scents.

(If you want to offer a deal on your gift sets you could always do Buy 2, Get 3rd at 50% off.)

In addition to these gift sets you will want to have some “stocking stuffers” or “grab-and-go gifts.”

I like to have a variety of hand/foot lotions or lip gloss/satin lip sets. Keep these items in a basket or set them up on her coffee table. It’s best to have all these at the same price point. I usually price my items at $14 each or 3 for $40.

Set Up for the Party:

“Keep It Simple Sweetie” when setting up. Maybe have all your gift sets sorted in shipping boxes that are wrapped with holiday paper on all 4 sides and the bottom. That way when you get to the party you can pull out the gift sets, flip the boxes over, place the boxes in the middle of the table for high risers and then line up your products in group according to the 6x6 rule. You can even throw a table cloth or piece of fabric over the boxes and table, add some battery operated Christmas lights, burn a Christmas candle in the kitchen, and have trays of products to demo that are in each set.

When Guests Arrive:

Welcome all the guests and give them a large gift bag to use as their shopping bag for the evening. Inside have a clipboard with a holiday wish/shopping list, holiday brochure, holiday recruiting info, customer profile card, sales ticket, a pen and a mini candy cane.

Go over the clipboard and each gift set with the group. Then, allow them to “try and buy!” This is the point of the party they get to smell the fragrances, try the satin hands, and play with some lip glosses (or whatever else you have). Let them know if they see a gift set they want, to just take it from the table and put it in their shopping bag.

Once they have completed their “shopping” then write up a sales ticket for all the sets in their bag. Don’t forget to ask them if there was anything they wanted to take home for themselves that night, or to put on their holiday wish list. Be sure to find out who their “Santas” are. Once you have their order completed ask them to host a party or pampering session. You’ll also want to offer her the business opportunity and ask for referrals.

HOW TO HOLD A TRUNK SHOW

These are very similar to “Holiday Coffees” or “Jingle & Mingle” Parties. The only difference is you go to your hostess’ place of employment. I typically book existing customers, a holiday party hostess (as part 2 to her in-home party), family and friends. It’s best to have these in December as it get closer to the Holidays and people have less time to shop. Book a time that works for her and her co-workers such as lunch or after work (and always on a pay day!). Have her invite all her co-workers to meet in the parking lot at the scheduled time. I offer the hostess one set at half price for each person who shops (and makes a purchase) with me that day. Book multiple Trunk Show in one day. You can even do “mini trunk shows” with customers who live in the area where you will be. Lay a piece of sparkle fabric or a holiday table cloth on the bottom of your trunk. Have your gifts sorted by “Gifts for Her,” “Gifts for Him,” “Gifts for Everyone,” and “Stocking Stuffers”. You’ll want to give each shopper a large gift bag with a business card, holiday brochure, business opportunity info and a sample.

TIP: You may want to create a gift tag for each set that includes the name of the set and the products that are included along with the sale price. Price each gift set to include sales tax and gift wrapping. Have an “Inventory List” so you can track what you are selling, or pull the gift tags off when someone purchases a set.
